

Analyst Profile

Name: Prof. Dr. Karin Graeslund

Occupation: Scientific Advisor

Location: Wiesbaden/ Germany

Experience: 12 years in IT industry

Prof. Dr. Karin Graeslund is a Scientific Advisor for KuppingerCole and Professor for Business and Finance Information Management at the Wiesbaden Business School of the RheinMain University of Applied Sciences Wiesbaden & Rüsselsheim. Her main fields of expertise at KuppingerCole is focused on Management of Information Technologies for Finance and Financial Services. She is a Member of GI and ISACA.

Roles & Responsibilities:

Prof. Dr. Karin Gräslund is a Scientific Advisor at KuppingerCole and Professor for Business and Finance Information Management at the Wiesbaden Business School of the RheinMain University of Applied Sciences Wiesbaden & Rüsselsheim.

Areas of coverage:

- SAP
- Integrated Finance
- Sourcing of Financial Services
- Enterprise Performance Management
- Digital Finance
- Big Data

Background & Education:

Prof. Dr. Karin Graeslund studied Economics and Business Information Management, followed by a Ph. D at the department of Business Information Management, at Hohenheim University, Stuttgart. Her studies examined anonymity effects in computer supported teams empirically, her recent publications cover automated planning with SAP. She is a member of GI and ISACA.

Contact Details:

Mail: kg@kuppingercole.com

Blog: www.kuppingercole.com/blog