

Analyst Profile

Name: John Tolbert

Occupation: Senior Analyst

Location: Seattle / USA

Experience: 20 years in IT industry

John Tolbert is a senior analyst at KuppingerCole, with internationally recognized expertise in cybersecurity and identity management. John has consulted for national governments, and has 20 years of experience working in Aerospace, Defense, Manufacturing, and Financial industries. John was honored as an OASIS Distinguished Contributor in 2014, and as an Associate Technical Fellow at Boeing in 2011. In addition to working with OASIS, he has also participated in Kantara Initiative, Transglobal Secure Collaboration Program (TSCP), the FIDO Alliance. He has numerous technical security publications, and is a frequent speaker at cybersecurity and identity management events.

Roles & Responsibilities:

Executive leadership experience coupled with a detailed knowledge of Enterprise and Security Architecture. Demonstrated ability to exceed program objectives, and reduce risk while enhancing customer value. Frequent speaker at information security and computer industry events. Prolific author of cybersecurity and identity management whitepapers.

Background & Education:

Former chair of TSCP Cybersecurity Working Group and Intellectual Property Working Group; and former NSA Enduring Security Framework Access Control Policy team lead. Honored as an OASIS Distinguished Contributor in 2014, and as Boeing Associate Technical Fellow in 2011.

Areas of coverage:

- Identity and access management
- Attribute-based access controls
- Identity federation
- Mobile security
- Data classification and Data Loss Prevention

Contact Details:

Mail: jt@kuppingercole.com

Blog: <http://www.kuppingercole.com/blog>